MACCABEE DAY IN THE CITY

Five Hundred Men Were Made Sir Knights.

MANY LADY BEES INITIATED

MORE THAN 2,000 MEMBERS OF THE ORDER CELEBRATE.

TWO thousand or more Maccabees from every quarter of the state gathered in the city to witness last night the state initiation of the largest number of secret order candidates that have probably ever before been initiated at one time in Utah. Five hundred men went through the ceremonies that made them sir knights, and fifty women became Lady Maccabees. The initiation ceremonies of the knights, which were very elaborate, were held at the Grand theatre and the women were initiated in the Maccabee room at I. O. O. F. hall. After the services at the theatre the knights paraded down Main street to I.

F. M. Budrow.

Supreme commander of the state, F. M. Budrow, and his assistant, Dr. Hanchett, supervised the work of initiation.

The degree team, dressed in costumes of ancient times, appeared upon the stage and presented a brief sketch of the story of Judas Maccabeeus, and the war between the Assyrians and Jewish people, that gave birth to Maccabeeism. The sketch was in three scenes, the first presenting the decree of the Assyrian king that the people of Judea should forsake their old customs and religion and accept the customs and god of the Assyrian king that the people of Judea should forsake their old customs and religion and accept the customs and god of the Assyrian king that the people of Judea should forsake their old customs and god of the Assyrian king that the people of Judea should forsake their old customs and god of the Assyrian king that the people of Judea should forsake their old customs and god of the Assyrian king that the people of Judea should forsake their old customs and god of the Assyrian king that the people of Judea should forsake their old customs and god of the Assyrian king that the people of Judea should forsake their old customs and god of the Assyrian king that the people of Judea should forsake their old customs and god of the Assyrian king the transmitted to Lace House.

Burglars made an unsuccessful attempt to gain entrance into the Lace House on Main street early yesterday morning, but were prevented by the arrival of the nightwatchman, who was attracted to the place by unusual noises.

The noise of the attempt to force open a door attracted the attention of a number of people in the vicinity, among whom was the nightwatchman on the block, who at once went to the rear of the store and found five suspicious characters near the rear door. The men made off as soon as they caught sight of the watchman and disappeared round the corner.

After these scenes the candidates were the secret ritual of the order, which led up to conferring of degrees of sir knight upon all the candidates. After these exercises Supreme Commander Budrow made a short address to the knights and he was followed by the Rev. P. W. Pinkerton, a newly initiated member, with a brief and appropriate address.

The new members then formed in double column in front of the theatre and headed by Held's band marched to State street, thence north to First South, thence west to Main and down Main to the I. O. O. F. hall. The parade was over two blocks long and was participated in by almost all the local and visiting knights.

In the meantime the Ladies of the Maccabees had met at Odd Fellows hal and the initiation of the state class of ladies was held. The ceremonles were performed by the degree team of Banner in the control of the state of the control of the c hive No. 11, and about the initiated into the order.

About 10:30 the knights arrived at the hall and a light luncheon was served to all the local and visiting knights and ladies, by the local tents of both branches of the organization. The visitors took their trains for home about 1 a. m.

Visitors From Park City Fall Vic-

While going west on Second South street last night, Vernal Wilson and J.

W. Parsons of Park City were confronted by a man with two revolvers and commanded to hold up their hands while they were searched. Both obeyed, while they were searched. ARMY OFFICER TESTS MR. AXTON'S EYES BY MEANS OF DECK OF PLAYING CARDS

Testing a minister's eyesight by means of the spots on a deck of playing cards, was the rather novel feature of the Rev. John T. Axton's first examination yesterday by the board of examiners at Fort Douglas.

As is known, Mr. Axton has been recommended for a chaplainey in the United States army and must stand an examination in various branches before his appointment can be made. He was ordered to Fort Douglas yesterdey to take the first examination—the physical test.

After making a careful search for ingrewing toenails and various other inconveniences to the physical being, the physician called him up to test his eyesight. Mr. Axton was stationed in one corner of the office and the physician, picking up a common deck of playing cards, went to the opposite corner. With

YOUNG MAN TAKES DOSE OF STRYCHNINE, THEN IS SEIZED WITH DESIRE TO LIVE

In a fit of despondency over financial troubles, Harvey Adams, a young man who manufactures bead rings and bracelets at Calder's park, swallowed strychnine last night. Doctors were gotten to him in time to save his life. Young Adams went to the Parlor drug store late in the evening, and asked for something to kill a dog. Theclerk gave him a small bottle of strychnine, and Adams departed. According
